

Dr. Boyana Bachvarova is Assistant Professor at NATFA in the Faculty of Screen Arts. Lecturer in “Set construction” and “Costume and make-up”. She also leads practical modules for “Film and TV design” students in the stage of pre-production of their course short films.

She holds a B.A. degree in “Stage and set design”, M.A. degree in “Theatre Arts” and a PhD in “Scenography”. The subject of her doctoral thesis and main interest in her work as a scenographer is the cross point between art and technology in the theatrical space.

Since 2009 she works as a freelance set designer and has accomplished more than 50 artistic projects in various fields such as theatre, film, performance art, visual art, lighting design, graphic design etc. Participation in numerous art festivals, workshops, conferences and exhibitions in Bulgaria and abroad.