To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write recommendation for Arik Kaplun.

Arik was providing us with screenplay editing and consulting services on a number of New Regency projects in development.

His unique approach to storytelling always supports the character and protects the structure. I was puzzled, by Arik's extraordinary ability to envision solutions where others felt helpless.

At the same time, Arik is a talented writer/director, highly persistent in achieving the most possible accuracy in his work.

Such qualities make Arik specially fitted for a fragile craft of screenplay editing.
